Newsletter Signup - The Lawyer’s Daily

The Lawyer’s Daily offers a Newsletter Signup service for various legal practice areas that will push new articles of interest to a user’s e-mail inbox.

Users must register with The Lawyer’s Daily using their Seneca e-mail address to take advantage of this service:

1. On the database’s homepage, click “Seneca College” in the upper-right corner and select “My Account”:

2. On the right, fill in all of the fields under “Register”. In the Email field, you must enter your full Seneca College e-mail address. The password can be whatever you like, but note that if you decide to use your Seneca password, the password here will not change automatically when you change your Seneca password:
3. Once you have created that account, go back to the upper-right corner and select “Newsletter Signup”:
4. Enter that same Seneca e-mail address that you registered with in the Email box, then check off the Area(s) of Practice in which you are interested and click “Sign Up Now”. Newly-released articles in those practice areas will be sent directly to your e-mail inbox. When you click on them there, you will be prompted to Sign In with that same Seneca e-mail address in order to read the article:
