Email Alerts and RSS Feeds – Taylor & Francis Online Journals

Database alerting services allow you to select information of interest and then be notified regularly, via email or RSS feeds, of new information available. The tables of contents of specific journals, magazines, and newspapers, the output of search queries, and specific article citations can all be pushed to your email inbox or to an RSS reader. These services make it easier to stay on top of developments in your field of interest.

Taylor & Francis Online offer two types of alerts to Seneca College students, faculty, and staff:
• Journal Alerts
• Search Alerts

Users must register with Taylor & Francis to take advantage of these alerting services:
Journal Alerts

1. Log in to Taylor & Francis Online.

2. You may either search for the name of a Taylor & Francis journal using the search box at the top of the Log In page...

3. Once you have located a publication of interest ...
4. From here, click either “New content alerts” to set up e-mail alerts for this journal, or click “RSS” to set up an RSS feed for new content from it.

a) If you click the “New content alerts” option, you will see this...
Select how frequently you want to receive alerts.

b) If you click the RSS option, you will see this...

Copy the URL from the address bar into a text editor. In this case, it is:
http://www-tandfonline-com.libaccess.senecacollege.ca/action/showFeed?type=etoc&feed=rss&jc=cjeh20

Replace everything before /action with http://www.tandfonline.com. The result...
http://www.tandfonline.com/action/showFeed?type=etoc&feed=rss&jc=cjeh20

... is the URL you will enter into your RSS feed reader in order to get RSS feeds of new content from this journal.
Search Alerts

1. Log in to Taylor & Francis Online.

2. Conduct a search:

3. When the results appear, click “Only show content I have full access to” over on the left. Note we do not have access to all Taylor & Francis content, so it is recommended that you limit your search to what we do have by selecting that.
4. Click “Save this search”:

5. You will be prompted to give your search a name and, should you wish to be alerted when new results are added to Taylor &Francis Online that match your search criteria, to indicate how frequently you would like to be notified (change the default “Never” to either Daily, Weekly, or Monthly).
6. When you click “Save your search” you will get the message, “Your saved search alert has been updated”:

Note that it is not possible to create RSS feeds to searches the same way you created them for journals in the previous section.
