1. Find the article you are interested in and copy the URL from the address bar:

2. URLs for content in QP Briefing contain a date, starting with the year of the post. Replace everything before the year (in the case above, 2016) with ...

   So for the above example...

   ...is a link to the article. The link can be sent to students via email, placed on a MySeneca course webpage, etc., and is accessible both on- and off-campus.
